

Agreement scale

Strongly disagree Disagree Neutral Agree Strongly agree

Q8. AI systems adequately protect patient data and privacy

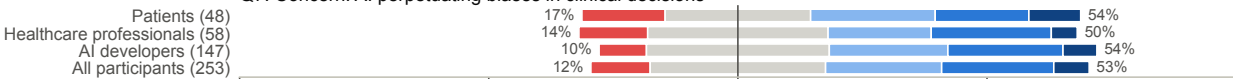

Q13. AI could undermine the autonomy of patients and providers

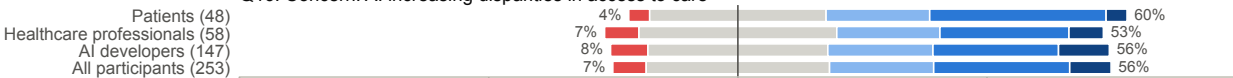

Concern, importance and confidence scales

Not (concerned / important / confident) Neutral Somewhat Concerned / Important / Confident Extremely

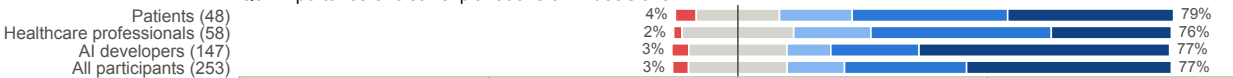

Q7. Concern: AI perpetuating biases in clinical decisions

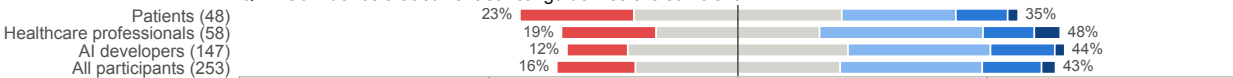

Q16. Concern: AI increasing disparities in access to care

Q9. Importance of clear explanations of AI decisions

Q14. Confidence that current ethical guidelines are sufficient

Trust

No trust Little trust Complete trust

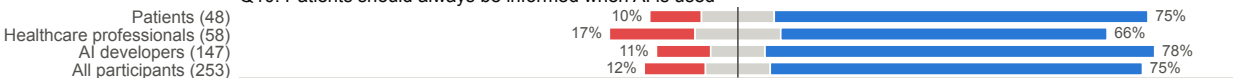

Q12. Trust in AI to make accurate and fair decisions, compared with professionals

Yes / No / Not sure

No Not sure Yes

Q10. Patients should always be informed when AI is used

Q15. Comfortable with AI making life-and-death decisions without a human

100 50 0 50 100

Percentage of participants (left: negative side of scale; right: positive side)